

Eight highlights on offer at TEFAF Maastricht as fair gets ready to welcome new exhibitors

Firms from the UK and as far away as USA, Mexico and Japan make debuts

By Frances Allitt

TEFAF Maastricht returns for its latest run from March 14-19 with 276 dealers from 24 countries and a vast selection of art, design, and antiques.

Opening with two invitation-only preview days on March 12-13, the fair regularly hosts not just top international exhibitors but also influential collectors and museums who come to buy.

Above: a George II oil-gilt side table featuring an elephant head designed by Henry Flitcroft and attributed to Matthias Lock, c. 1740, is offered by Steinitz Gallery for a six-figure sum.

Cliquez ici pour lire l'article original.